FLEET MARINE FORCE PACIFIC ORDER 3850.1B

From: Commanding General
To: Distribution List

Subj: Counterintelligence Contingency Materials (CICM)

Ref: (a) CMC ltr INTC-DLD-bfh 3800 of 18 Oct 1973 (S)
(b) Counterintelligence Publications Registry (CIPR)

Encl: (1) Recommended CICM Index Card Format
(2) Format for Accession and Inventory Listings

1. Purpose. To establish procedures for CICM repository functioning and maintenance.

2. Cancellation. FMFPacO 3850.1A.

3. Background. The CICM repository concept for the Marine Corps was established by reference (a). CICM repositories will be established at Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps, the two Fleet Marine Force headquarters, and the three Marine Amphibious Force headquarters.

4. Repository Concept. Within this command, formal CICM repositories will be maintained at FMFPac, I MAF, and III MAF headquarters. The CICM referred to herein are defined in the broad sense and cover the spectrum from encyclopedic documents (e.g., CI country studies) to recurring publications (e.g., biweekly USAF Office of Special Investigations information briefs). Each repository shall select and order materials based upon its own and subordinate commands' identifiable training, operational, and contingency needs. Publication of accession and inventory listings will be accomplished in accordance with instructions provided below.

5. Action. Each command which maintains a CICM repository shall:

a. Select and order, from available sources, CICM in accordance with the repository concept cited above. In this regard, attention is directed to reference (b) and its subsequent editions as a primary source of CICM.
